

Appeal Filing to the Board of Supervisors Review of Municipal Transportation Agency Decisions Appeal Transportation Code, Section 10.1

A Final San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA) Decision may be reviewed by the Board of Supervisors. These paragraphs are written to provide a summary of the process. Further details are contained in Transportation Code, Section 10.1. In case of conflict between these paragraphs and the Transportation Code, the Transportation Code provisions control.

Who May File An Appeal:

Any member of the public, with the concurrence of five members of the Board of Supervisors. Requests for review may be filed regarding the following:

1. Installing or removing a stop sign;
2. The creation or elimination of a preferential parking zone, pursuant to Vehicle Code, Sections 22507 or 22507.1;
3. The creation or elimination of a parking meter zone;
4. Adopting a limitation on the time period for which a vehicle may be parked;
5. Creating or eliminating a Class III bikeway or bike route;
6. Creating a pilot or temporary program involving 1 through 5 above, or continuing or substantially modifying as defined in Transportation Code, Section 10.1(a), a pilot or temporary program involving 1 through 5 above on a permanent basis;
7. Creating or substantially modifying as defined in Transportation Code, Section 10.1(a), a private transportation program that may create or eliminate a preferential parking zone, or limit the time period for which a vehicle may be parked to accommodate a private transportation service.
8. Implementation of a Bus Rapid Transit project that authorizes preferential access for any part of the street, except for commercial loading zones, to any vehicle that is not a Municipal Railway vehicle, taxi, authorized emergency vehicle, or Golden Gate transit vehicle.
